

Economic Development and Opportunity

Building a more prosperous Delaware

Better, more affordable housing opportunities

410 Units

Constructed or rehabilitated 366 units fully accessible to people with disabilities, a three-fold increase over the previous administration.

800+ Units Increase in affordable housing stock

24% Since 2009, DSHA financing has supported the rehab or creation of almost 23% of the stock in the state.

Administration will have worked on more affordable rental housing than any other administration over the past 30 years

$329 Million

$17.7 Million

Downtown Development program has leveraged $17.7 million into $329 million in private investment across all 3 counties

Expect More

Strengthened infrastructure to be safer and more efficient by reforming and addressing shortfall in Transportation Trust Fund

~$400 Million additional funding in the next six years to strength roads and bridges

81% of contracts awarded to Delaware Firms

32,000 jobs will be created

Reduced borrowing to bring debt in line with acceptable levels

Redevelopment of Strategic Sites

Both plans would create jobs, improve water and soil quality by eliminating environmental contamination, provide local recreation and tourism, spur new business and enhance the value of adjacent neighborhoods.

National Vulcanized Fiber (NVF) Company

Transforming the area in Yorklyn into a residential, commercial, conservation and recreational area while cleaning the site of contaminants, reducing flooding and preserving and restoring historic aspects.

Fort DuPont

Development as a mixed-use community to include housing, recreation, health care and institutional spaces, fully integrated with Delaware City that will produce revenue and jobs.

Financial Empowerment through

12,661 people participated in financial coaching with over 70% working on credit improvement. The average credit score increase is 45 points.

18,519 have received assistance obtaining college financial aid